Air Quality Management Division

PUBLIC NOTICE

The AQMD received a complete application on 12/03/2024 for the modification of a Synthetic Minor Air Quality Permit to Operate AAIR16-0082 from the following applicant:

Apple Inc.

Sparks, Nevada 89442

Apple Inc. (Apple) is located at 21505 Reno Technology Way in Sparks, NV. The Apple Inc. data center is comprised of multiple buildings owned and operated by Apple.

The facility operates 40 emergency engines to provide power to the facility in emergency situations. Apple submitted an application to modify their Synthetic Minor Air Quality Permit to Operate by installing selective catalytic reduction, diesel oxidation catalyst, and diesel particulate filter controls on twelve existing emergency engines. Apple did not request any changes to its allowable emissions during this permitting action. As there is no emissions increase as a result of this permitting action, a Best Systems of Control analysis is not applicable and was not conducted.
